Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING APRIL 15 1902.

"IT IS TO LAUGH!"
Ye who have laughs to laugh pare to scicker now. An exchange says:

A young man in Missouri called to spend the evening with his "best girl." A storm came up; the girl's father asked him to remain over night. He was a very bashful young man, and the next morning when he was invited to a seat at the table he reluctantly accepted.
He was very nervous and anxious. He sat opposite the mirror and discovered that he had forgotten to comb his hair. Then he dropped his fork on the floor, and as he stooped to pick it up he spilt his coffee. Matters went from bad to worse until finally the young man quit eating and put his hands under the table. The loose end of the table cloth was lying in his lap, and when he touched it he turned pale.
He thought it was his shirt, and in his nervous excitement while dressing he had forgotten to put the garment inside his trousers. That accounted for the smiles of his girl's father and mother and the rest of the family. There was no time to lose. He hurriedly stroked the supposed shirt inside his trousers. Two minutes later, when the family arose from the table, there was a crash. The dishes lay in a broken mass on the floor. The young man pulled three feet of the table cloth out of his pants and fled through the door. He is now hiding, and the girl is on the lookout for a less bashful lover.
